Waldheim:
hall probably reach Dresden to-morrow; the Prince Moskowa will cross the Elbe and march on Berlin. en: peasants declare that firing was heard in the di- of Meissen this morning at ten o'clock, enemy have burnt all the bridges, and done all uld to delay my advance. Dresden: r for sending out pickets on all the roads lead-o Bohemia to get information. We are hard at work on a bridge so as to get the right bank. The Duke of Ragusa will pass through the city ow at noon, his troops in parade uniforms, taking 3, and marching in the strictest order. lie will 3 baggage with everything that doesn't look well by the floating bridge.

orrow noon the whole army will be on the right

(To Prince Eugene.) My Son: You must start for Italy. I am ordering the Minister of War to ader your command the troops that are in the n of Italy and the Illyrian provinces. (To Ney.) I am beginning to get some cav-hree principal aims, to be accomplished before of the month, are to unblock Glogau, to occupy thereby enabling the Prince of EckmUhl to re-Hamburg, and to seize Breslau.